Summary

Computer Science engineer who builds and runs the systems behind online stores — Shopify and WooCommerce builds, conversion and retention (Klaviyo/FluentCRM), tracking, hosting and DNS operations, and the automation that ties them together (n8n, Cloudflare Workers, AI agents). Built and ran GymBeastMode, a Shopify fitness store with ~$200K in lifetime sales, and a cold launch that took ₹8.5 lakh (~$10K) in orders in its first 3 weeks. I work AI-first with Claude Code, backed by tests, CI and deployment guardrails, and I work async with clear written updates.
